Quartet specialise in recruitment for the Hotel & Hospitality industry. Quartet place professionals Managers, Chefs, Front & Back of House staff throughout the UK and also have extensive expertise in the selection of Senior Executives, Sales and administration staff. Quartet has the ability to offer the choice of permanent, contract or temporary staff to suit the requirements of the position. Our head office is located in Essex with area managers appointed in other areas of England and Scotland.

Quartet is operated by experienced staff with a wide knowledge of the recruitment market. Our interviewing process ensures we only submit candidates who possess the skills specifically required by the employer. Fees are prearranged with potential employers, and for this we guarantee the highest standard of service in assisting with the recruitment of valuable members of staff.

About Us

Quartet Recruitment was formed by Steve Williams, who having spent considerable time in Hotel and Catering management, as well as general commerce, saw the need for a recruitment service, that could be relied on to provide a professional knowledgeable service. This experience has proved invaluable in understanding clients and candidate's needs and accurately matching them to existing and even potential opportunities.

Steve says "We are in the people business, we realise what a valuable asset staff are to a business that relies entirely on delighting its customers". "To ensure the best results, we work in partnership with our clients and our candidates helping to match skill levels with requirements that will enhance both your business reputation and the aspirations of the individual".

"The Team at Quartet recruitment has been hand picked for a combination of their skill and experience and you have my promise of the best possible service and attention to detail".

Objective

Our objective is to assure all potential employers that only the most suitable candidates who meet your criteria are presented to you. We appreciate that despite the combined effort between ourselves and yourselves, occasionally a candidate once employed may not turn out to be completely suitable. To this end we offer an exclusive 'claw back' period or a replacement. We have every confidence that this will not be necessary, which is why we offer this service.
